

We claim:

The embodiment of this invention, the combination of electronic is claimed as follows:

The equipments, the MIRROR and the LENS are attach together, we will make a hole in the middle of the door of about 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ cm. We insulate the lens inside the door that shows also outside the door, that lens will take the picture to whoever is outside that door.

We have a two hole on both side of the top of the mirror. With the use of two wood screw and rubber washer to hold secure the mirror on the door.